sing with our virtual choir for The Prayer of St. Francis. (Check her out on Facebook under Judy Yannini, Soprano!) The pandemic has made welcoming her especially difficult, but we are grateful for her willingness to jump right in!

Coming to us from Tijauna, Mexico, Judy recently graduated with her M.M. from the world-class Opera program at the University of Maryland, on a student visa. Having completed all of the proper requirements, she awaits especially long process to complete her work visa. Until Immigration Services can finalize the processing, she is unable to earn any income.

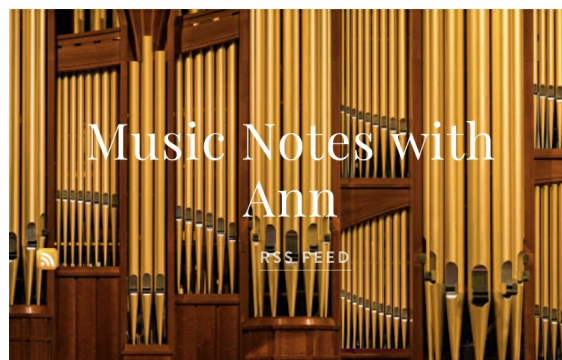

From Judy:

Hi! I hope everyone is doing well during this time. As you may know with gatherings being limited due to COVID, musicians have been profoundly affected by the lack of events occurring. Because international students are limited in their ability to work, it is important for us to create our own opportunities to make music. With that being said, I would like to invite you to an event that my friend and accompanist, Sepehr Davalou, and I are hosting via Zoom. This will take place on July 18th at 6:30 PM (EST). To access the concert, please send a voluntary donation in any amount through PayPal to the email judychy@live.com.mx or Venmo to @Judy-ChirinoOrtega and send the receipt to my email judychy@live.com.mx. The link to enter the concert will be sent on the day of.

I hope you will join me in supporting Judy's budding career, as she will be providing beautiful worship music and support to all of us here at CtK!

The concert will last approximately 45 minutes, and features Mexican, Italian, and Spanish art songs and other selections. Hope to see you there!
